

Meritor WABCO Names Jon Morrison General Manager

TROY, Mich., (Feb. 1, 2006) – Meritor WABCO Vehicle Control Systems has announced the appointment of Jon Morrison as General Manager, effective immediately. According to the Meritor WABCO board of directors, Morrison will direct the joint venture's strategic and operational business plans along with day-to-day management.

He succeeds Denny Sandberg, who has resigned to pursue other business interests. Sandberg joined Rockwell Automotive in 1979 and was named president and general manager of Meritor WABCO in 2000.

"Jon's leadership will enable our long-time joint venture to significantly grow by providing our valued customers with more advanced technologies that make a positive difference in fleets' operations," said Pedro Ferro, vice president of ArvinMeritor's Commercial Vehicle Systems (CVS) Brake business, and a Meritor WABCO board member.

Morrison is a 25-year experienced automotive industry executive having served most recently as global director of sales and application engineering at Dana Corp. in Rochester Hills, Mich.

He holds a bachelor's degree in general management from Purdue University, in West Lafayette, Ind., and a master's degree in business administration from Bowling Green State University in Ohio. He will be based at the Meritor WABCO headquarters in Troy.

Meritor WABCO¹ is a joint venture of ArvinMeritor Inc., (NYSE:ARM) and the WABCO Vehicle Control Systems business of American Standard Companies Inc. (NYSE:ASD).

WABCO, the vehicle control systems business of American Standard Companies, is the world's leading producer of electronic braking, stability, suspension and transmission control systems for heavy duty commercial vehicles.
